WRIT PETITION NO : 18923 of 2005

Dated:30.08.2005

Between:

K.Sreenivasulu, s/o K.Sivanna,
r/o. P.Siddarampuram Village, H/o P.Yaleru Village, Atmakur Mandal, Anantapur District.

..... PETITIONER

AND

The Mandal Revenue Officer, Atmakur Mandal, Anantapur district.

.....RESPONDENT

ORDER:

The land admeasuring Acs.5.02 in Survey No.632-1 of P.Yaleru Village was assigned to the father of the petitioner in 1969. It appears, the Joint Collector cancelled the assignment by proceedings dated 19.04.1989, aggrieved by which, the father of the petitioner preferred an appeal before the Special Commissioner Land Revenue. Subsequently, the matter was disposed of by the Commissioner remanding the case to the Joint Collector. Again a show cause notice was issued to the father of the petitioner, and when the case was pending before the Joint Collector, the father of the petitioner died. The petitioner is allegedly in possession of the property. He alleged that when the case is still pending before the Joint Collector, the Mandal Revenue Officer, the sole respondent herein, orally directed the petitioner not to cultivate the land. Apprehending forcible dispossession, this Court's power is invoked by the petitioner.

When the matter came before this Court yesterday, the learned Assistant Government Pleader for Revenue (Assignment) was directed to get instructions in the matter. After getting instructions, the learned Assistant Government Pleader submits that when the case was posted on 30.07.2005, the petitioner did not appear, and again the case has been posted to tomorrow. He also submits that the allegation that the Mandal Revenue Officer threatened to dispossess, is not correct.

While recording the same, the writ petition is dismissed as misconceived. No costs.
